Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurEmily thought being a teenager was hard enough, more responsibilities, more pressure from her parents, more everything! Then, while watching over her younger sister and two rambunctious brothers, they wander into the forest behind their house and find themselves transported to the magical land of Midralon. In this strange new land, they encounter creatures and magic, both enchanting and deadly!However, Midralon is a land at war. The evil Silent Kings armies are spreading throughout the lands, bringing fear and terror.Emily realizes that the ultimate responsibility now rests on her very unprepared shoulders, not only must she get her family back home, they must also avoid the rampaging armies of the monstrous Silent King. When Emily somehow unlocks a magical power within herself, she reluctantly accepts the title of wizard, but when the inhabitants of Midralon tell her of an ancient prophecy and claim she is the only one that can defeat the Silent King, it is too much for the young girl! She must discover how to harness the magic within herself or lose all hope of returning to her own world! Thus begins Emily's journey of self-discovery, wherein she learns the power of words and the magic in them!
