Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurOn the surface, Genny's life seems ripple-free right now. Finn, her sexy boss, has stopped pushing for a decision on their relationship. The seductive vampire Malik al-Khan has vanished back into the shadows. And the witches have declared her no longer a threat. But unless Genny can find a way to break the fertility curse afflicting London's fae, she knows this is just the lull before the magical storm. Then a faeling - a teenage girl - is fished out of the River Thames, dead and bound with magic, and Genny is called into investigate. As she digs through the clues, her search takes a sinister and dangerous turn, exposing age-old secrets that might be better left buried. Then another faeling disappears, and Genny finds herself in a race against time to save the faeling and stop the curse from claiming its next victim - herself!

Biographie de l'auteur Suzanne McLeod was born in London but spent most of her childhood in the Midlands. She's been a secretary, a cocktail waitress, a dance instructor and a retail properties manager. Eventually, she decided to try to make a living at her long-time passion--fiction writing. She has since settled on the relatively sunny South Coast of England where she lives with her husband and two rescue dogs, all of whom are enthusiastic about her new career. THE SPELLCRACKERS TRILOGY is her debut work.
