Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurIn the third novel in the New York Times bestselling Bibliophile Mystery series, bookbinder Brookly Wainwright gets a lesson in deadly deception...When it comes to rare books and antiques, Brooklyn Wainwright is a master. Which is why she's returned home to San Francisco to teach a bookbinding class at Bay Area Book Arts. Unfortunately, BABA director Layla Fontaine is a horrendous host who pitches fits and lords over her subordinates. With the help of her beau, British security officer Derek Stone, Brooklyn manages to put up a brave face and endure.Unfortunately, someone else is not so forgiving. Layla is found dead of a gunshot wound, and Brooklyn is bound and determined to investigate.

But when Layla's past ends up intertwined with Derek's, Brooklyn realizes that the case is much more personal than she thought and that the killer might want to close the book on her for good. Revue de presse Praise for the New York Times Bestselling Bibliophile Mysteries Kate Carlisle never fails to make me laugh, even as she has me turning the pages to see what's going to happen next. Miranda James, New York Times bestselling author of the Cat in the Stacks Mysteries Carlisle's dialogue is natural, her prose has great flow, and her striking descriptions bring Brooklyn's world to life. Crimespree Magazine Captivating.... The action builds to a surprising final showdown. Publishers Weekly A true whodunit... highlights Carlisle's story line skills, her love for books, and her always-endearing heroine. Richmond Times-Dispatch Presentation de l'auteur In the third novel in the New York Times bestselling Bibliophile Mystery series, bookbinder Brooklyn Wainwright gets a lesson in deadly deception...
